

University Preparatory School Admission Policy

- Students will be considered for admission without regard to actual or perceived disability, gender, gender identity, gender expression, nationality, race or ethnicity, religion, sexual orientation, or any other characteristic that is contained in the definition of hate crimes set forth in Section 422.55 of the Penal Code or association with an individual who has any of the aforementioned characteristics.
- University Preparatory School is inclusive of a diverse student population from families who understand and value the school's mission and are committed to the school's broad-based approach to a classical education.
- Admission to the school is open to any 6 -12th grade student in Shasta County or adjacent counties who has completed the application process.
- Parents must complete an online.
- The school will grant admission preference during the first application period to currently enrolled students who wish to return, siblings of admitted or attending students, children of school employees, residents in the Shasta Union High School District boundaries, and applicants who were in either the first or second lottery the previous year and remained on the waiting list throughout the year.
- The decision to readmit a pupil expelled from University Preparatory School or admit a previously expelled pupil from another public school shall be in the sole discretion of the Governing Board following a meeting with the Superintendent/Principal, the pupil and guardian or representative to determine whether the pupil has successfully completed the rehabilitation plan and to determine whether the pupil poses a threat to others or will be disruptive to the school environment. The Superintendent/Principal shall make a recommendation to the Governing Board following the meeting regarding his or her determination. The pupil's admission is also contingent upon University Preparatory School's capacity at the time the student seeks admission.
